DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

END YEAR BASH - THIS SUNDAY

WHEN: Sunday 19 Dec, 5 pm

BYO : Refreshments and pot luck shared meal.

GIFT : Home-made, upcycled or recycled gift.

Entertainment to follow.

We're a diverse lot and the cultural arts bring people of all beliefs and values together with mutual respect and it is always our intention to be as inclusive as possible. However, as a venue operator we have to choose under the Covid "traffic light" system whether we operate with or without vaccine pass restrictions. We have decided to operate with the vaccine pass system so please don't be offended if we ask to see your vaccine pass on arrival.

Thank you for your continued support and enthusiasm.

Have a safe and joyous holiday season.

Adam NZ Play Award 2022

The Adam NZ Play Award is open to all plays that have not had a professional production (pending productions, readings, workshops or amateur productions are fine).

The Adam Foundation has generously enabled a total of $8,000 in prizes.

Scripts may only be submitted to this competition once. There are no limits on length, style, theme or cast size. You may submit as many as you like. The competition is open to any New Zealand citizen/permanent resident.

Awards may be given in the following categories:

- Best Play
- Best Play by a Māori Playwright
- Best Play by a Pasifika Playwright
- Best Play by a Woman Playwright

To follow: New committee meeting 2022

Colleen Pye and Brendan Smith are not running for re-election in 2022 and so we invite you to put yourself forward as a Committee candidate.

Being on the Committee broadens your exposure to the heart of theatre, is rewarding and you get to work with a great bunch of people.
